And here is Djwhal Khul's latest Spirituality Article, information complimentary every Thursday:

(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

Alright. We're getting some interesting phenomenon. We're having quite a few glitches, we're really working diligently on the inner planes at getting communication purpose to align and really what's happening is something like tidal waves, that's how we would describe it energetically.

A lot of rocking and sinking feelings and then zooming up high and then taking a dive and then the whole communication energy is just all over the place. We are also having difficulties with technology and some other things. So essentially my message is 'humor will get you through'.

We kind of have to just go back to "Well I guess this is just not going to happen today. I'll try again tomorrow." or "This is not going to happen right now, I'll try again in a couple of hours." or whatever it is.

So see if you can laugh it off as much as possible and just make light of what's going on. I think that's the best way to handle it.

And there will be changes that need to be made so that is the other thing to remember. It may be that you need to get a new cell phone because that one just isn't going to work right any more or whatever other piece of equipment might be impacting you.

So Dear Ones, that is my message for this week. Humor will get you through. As always, thank you and my love to you.
