And here is Djwhal Khul’s latest Spirituality Article:

(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

All right, let’s begin please with a very cleansing rain energy bringing in a beautiful, a sort of spiritual shower of light. We are going to bring that in, in a golden white color coming down from above and literally see if you can feel it moving through your energy fields, clearing away just like rain does; dust off of the leaves, and move things out of the way that were sort of, like if there was a weak tree branch or something, it comes down. That sort of thing. So this is a cleansing, also a pruning, if you will if you are into gardening, a sort of pruning away of old things. That is how you can use a good rain storm. Now the storms lately here in Arizona, where we are calling in from, have been offering a beautiful pink lightning. Now generally, you see lightning as either white or blue, maybe sometimes, occasionally a golden color, but pink lightning is quite rare.

And I want to talk about the value of that and the value of the thunderbolt as it is sometimes called, in the Tibetan Way of the Dorje, the thunderbolt. When you work with the thunderbolt energy, it is a way of clearing the path. It clears all obstacles out of the way. So a pink thunderbolt is a feminine energy, sort of a Divine Feminine, it also has an Angelic component to it and if you just take a moment to imagine a beautiful bolt of pink lightning and feel the energy that comes with it. It is a very gentle clearing away of obstacles and then exhilaration, a sort of celebration, that's the word I want, a sort of celebration feeling that comes with it. So please use the energy symbolically anytime that you want to.

A nice heavy rainfall clearing away everything and then it also of course delivers the nourishment to the earth to grow new things while it clears away the old things. And then, the pink lightning is again a remover of obstacles and an exhilarating outcome from that.

Now we are in a very interesting time period, the month of August. A lot of changes, a lot of healing that can take place. We are sort of on the tail end of that Leo Saturn influence and also of a Pluto influence. So this is a time in which it would benefit you to "Focus on Your Future", that is our latest teaching on the Wednesday classes. The transcript will be available soon, the recording is available now and there is always the audio that's available. "Focus on Your Future" meaning, be very specific about the stepping stones that you are using to arrive at your own future.

All right. Let's go into another technique here; that is the pink lightning. And we want to see it going through the third eye center. Now of course, not literally lightning but symbolically: a streak of pink, like a straight laser rather than a jagged actual thunderbolt. We want to see pink light going in through the very center of the forehead, not the classic 3rd eye center at the brow point which represents the past and then in the very center of your forehead, there is actually a niche in the crania's there, it feels like a Celtic cross shape. You can go up and down and back and forth and that represents the present moment. Then you have another niche at the top of the forehead, just before the hairline... or perhaps where the hairline used to be, and there is again another cradle there, sort of a back and forth cradle, probably more so that a Celtic cross. That particular point of the 3rd eye is the future aspect.

So we want present moment, we want any obstacles affecting the present moment to be cleared with this pink lightning coming in through the exact center of the forehead, going out the back of the head at the base of the skull. You can just imagine that going through or maybe draw a side view of yourself and then take a pink marker, a pink pen or something, and draw through, and angle it so it goes through the exact center of the forehead, angled straight down like an exact laser point coming out the base of the skull, symbolically saying:

“I clear all my obstacles, right here, right now.”

And then it is done.

All right dear ones. This has been your Weekly Spirituality Article. I hope that you are enjoying learning about little tidbits as we go along.

Thank you and my love to you.
