(Channeling begins)

Djwhal Khul here. Tashi Delek.

A very warm Tibetan greeting to you. Alright. Today we are going to work with the energy of Mars and Mars retrograde. I would like you to think of Mars as a planet of energy; a red planet; it's got energy. Some associate it with anger or aggression but we are going to look at Mars as fiery, motivating, exciting and giving you kind of the fiery Will of Creation. So red in the Ray consciousness is Divine Will, "Thy Will Be Done". So if we work with the Mars retrograde that we are going through and we look at it as an opportunity to align with Divine Will and let "Thy Will Be Done", it is the most positive way to use that particular energy.

Let's begin with a little bit of that red ray or First Ray Consciousness and specifically the Master or Chohan that governs that Ray and that would be El Morya. Let's invoke the presence of El Morya first of all. Bring that energy to your consciousness maybe through your channel or maybe just sitting in the room with you as an image and then we are going to bring in the energy of Mars. And there are a lot of things associated with that; you can consciously name those if you are aware of them or you could just work with Mars as a planetary consciousness as representing maybe the fiery Will of God. And so we want to hold that energy -- You, El Morya and Mars. Now retrograde looks as though it is standing still. So it is a pause moment. In other words, it is a time to stop and reflect:

"What in my life can I consciously align with Divine Will?"
"Where in my life have I been acting against a Higher Will?"
"Am I ready to align with it or not?"

And particularly so I think for this particular Mars retrograde; a major effect is going to be in the relationship arena. So is there a relationship you can bring more harmony into consciously or maybe is there a relationship that has served its purpose and it's time to let go and ... as they say, let go and let God. Or let go and be at peace with what is?

So this is just one way in which we can work with that Mars retrograde. Now in terms of the world leadership and the effect of specific numbers and the Mars retrograde energy, say you can look at the forecast energy that I have put out there for the next little bit of time here. We are still in the forecast that I gave back towards September. The 11-22 energy can be kind of interesting.

We have holidays: Thanksgiving, Remembrance Day, various things of that coming that also play a part. So I am seeing really the opportunity there to sort of expand that Will, that Divine Will, to expand and to put a broader application of Divine Will into all of Creation. That would be the opportunity. Not so much leaning towards war or cataclysmic energies, although some might be interpreting it that way. I think we can use this in a very peaceful way as a motivator to come into higher alignment.

Alright everyone. That has been the Spirituality Article for this particular week. I hope that you have enjoyed it and that you can get some valuable use out of working with the exercise of El Morya, Mars and yourself, and also that you are in some way motivated to create a positive difference in the world.

Thank you and my love to you.
